As our nation has advanced in its economic, cultural and industrial development so have our education systems attempted to keep in step with the times. In this change we see the development of the private school, the grammar school, the one room school, the two room school and the many room school. We also see in higher education the academy, the city high school and the consolidated high school.

The formation of the Southeastern Local School district is another of the steps necessary to keep our educational opportunities up with the times. We can feel proud that we are one of the first districts in the state of Ohio to make this step.

It is the hope of the board of education and other leaders in the community that we can have a high school and grade school system that will be second to none in the state.

Our educational opportunities have been made possible by men and women who could see the need for education and could visualize the means by which these opportunities could be obtained. These opportunities are also made possible by persons who are willing to contribute their time, energy and money to secure these means.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1952, dedicate the Pirates' Treasure to our faculty in appreciation for their untiring efforts to contribute to the welfare of their students.

Because of their faithful interest and guidance we are hoping to fit our lives to the ideals they characterized.

We hope they will find in our annual the deep appreciation and respect we feel for them.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1940 we boarded the train to Education. Our conductor was Miss Marie Eikenberry with 24 passengers: Donald Ditmer, Dwane Fisher, Beverly Fourman, Carol Fourman, James Hency, Richard Irelan, Verlin Jamison, Roger Long, Lloyd Meyer, Eldon Rench, Jane Blumenstock, Ruth Bodenmiller, Thelma Bright, Betty Campbell, Phyllis Condon, Phyllis Ditmer, Betty Fourman, Faye Kibbey, Diane Koogler, Shirley Kress, Thelma Long, Doris Reed, Dolores Small and Kay Wright. The train then pulled into a station.

When the train chugged off again with Julia Roberts as our conductor, we took on eight more passengers! Tommy Brown, Dolores Bard, Jacqueline Fourman, Ellen Garber, Kay Hemmerich, Viron Adkins, Adrien Miller, Joan Hofacker. Phyllis Condon and Donald Ditmer got off at this station.

At the next stop some of us were divided into another train with Virginia Williams and Norma Sink as our conductors. We took on nine new passengers: Opal Glasscoe, Marjorie Hart, Janice Riffell, Clyde Gibson, Donna Roby, Betty Wintrow, Patricia Flory, Marvin Houdeshell, Ronnie Hughes. The following got off at the station: Roger Long, Lloyd Meyer, Jacqueline Fourman, Ellen Garber, Viron Adkins, Joan Hofacker, James Hency, and Tommy Brown.

In the fourth grade we had as our conductor Lucille Lutz and the following new passengers: Treva Kunkleman, Donald Harrison, Jack Miller, Donald White, Donald Hoblit. At our next stop we lost Ruth Bodenmiller, Donna Roby, Marvin Houdeshell and Marjorie Hart.

We chugged off again in the fifth grade with D. W. Bright as our conductor. Jo Ann Hoover, Joe Leach, and Kathleen Bruce boarded the train and Phyllis Ditmer, Faye Kibbey, Diane Koogler and Dolores Bard left us.

In the sixth grade we took on two new passengers, Virginia McGuire and Irvin Sarver. Our conductor was Alvin Brown. We again lost some passengers: Clyde Gibson, Ronnie Hughes, Donald White and Kathleen Bruce.

As we journeyed into the seventh grade we had Mr. Morton as our conductor. Here we had to adjust ourselves to meet many new faces. This time we had four new passengers to join us: Betty Jones, Joyclyn Lavy, Joan Maxwell, and Mary Harper. Virginia McGuire and Joe Leach had left us at the last stop.

In the eighth grade we had Robert Ross as our conductor. Here we made a stop when Dwane Fisher got off and no one entered.

As we journeyed into the first year of high school we had Mr. Allmann as our conductor. Here Betty McDaniels and Joan Maxwell joined us. Betty Jones, Jack Miller and Betty Wintrow left us.

In our Sophomore year we chose Mr. Olinger as our conductor. Jack Kronenberg and Marvin Small boarded the train and Joyclyn Lavy and Thelma Long left us.

When we made our next stop for the Junior year Mrs. Jobes then became our conductor. Three passengers joined us: Reita Alspaugh, Donna Roby, and Thelma Long. Verlin Jamison, Doris Jean Reed, and Jane Blumenstock left us.

Before starting the last lap of the journey, Jack Rice boarded the train. Mr. Schofer was our conductor. We were sorry to have Mary Harper, Betty Jean McDaniels, Donald Harrison and Donald Hoblit leave us. The time came for us to get off the train in this part of Education. Even though there are only 22 passengers left, we tried to do our best.

The boys played the sixth grade in baseball and defeated them in two games out of three. The sixth grade returned the favor in basketball and defeated the fifth grade in four out of five games. The girls began playing basketball with girls' rules and the sixth grade girls proved they were older and more experienced, too.

Gloria Miller spent the Christmas vacation in Arizona. She helped to brighten the after Christmas season with tales of the Sunny West.

The Music and Bible classes that were added to our schedule the second semester were enjoyed by all.

Grade one of the school year 1951-1952 opened the first day with thirty nine members--twenty-four boys and fifteen girls. By November, with the removal of three they settled down to a steady thirty-six.

Since they were able to secure just one teacher, the aid of two high school senior girls was enlisted for one period each day. Reita Alspaugh and Donna Roby have proved themselves real teaching material and the first grade surely appreciated their help. Records and typing were done very capably by a junior, Olis Kress. Sincere thanks were expressed to all three.

They have been able to achieve very good results this year since so many of the pupils are such good students. Reading, arithmetic, spelling, and phonics have been well mastered. Some of the writing was excellent for this grade and would even show well in higher grades.

The school spirit was good, as they tried hard to do what was right. Some day Monroe will be proud of them.
